

Curriculum Vitae

Name
Nima Ciren
Position title
Professor, Tibetan Traditional Medical College
Education
1975-1979: graduate from Medical College in Lhasa, be awarded the degree for Bachelor of Tibetan Medicine
Professional experience
1979-2019	Worked as a teacher in Tibetan Medical University and gradually becomes the president of Tibetan Medical University.
Professional memberships & service
Professor for Tibetan Medical University, Lhasa; doctoral supervisor in Tibetan Medical University, Shanghai Chinese Medical University, Beijing Chinese Medical University and Chengdu Chinese Medical University; guest professor for Otochmanramba University at Mongolia; He also serves as Vice-President of the Chinese National Medical Association, Standing Director of the Chinese National Medical Association, Chief Expert of the National Tibetan Medical Qualification Examination, Expert of the National Science and Technology Award Assessment Committee, Expert of the National Pharmaceutical Assessment Committee, Expert of the University Assessment Committee of Educational Ministry, Expert of the National Natural Science Foundation, Member of the Degree Committee of the Tibet Autonomous Region. Nima Ziren was awarded as a famous scholar of Qihuang, a national project of inheritance and innovation of traditional Chinese medicine (Qihuang Project), a Representative Successor of the National Intangible Cultural Heritage for the Northern School of Tibetan Medicine, The successor as 'eminent Tibetan doctors' in Tibet Autonomous Region, and enjoys the special allowance of the State Council. In 2008, he was awarded the honorary title of "Outstanding Contribution Award of Chinese Ethnic Medicine" with the approval of the Ministry of Health and the Central United Front Ministry. Over his more than 40 years working experience of Tibetan Medicine, about 30 articles were published, compiled 11 university textbooks and 3 Tibetan medical manuscripts. Over the time, he has undertaken over 20 research projects at different levels. He has supervised over 60 post-graduate students.
Research, scholarly & teaching interests
His main research interest is on the studying the ingredients of Tibetan medicine, especially on the mineral medicine, in terms of the identification and the efficacy.		